British Periodicals.
PREMIUMS
TO NEWSUBSCRIBERS.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz.

1. LONDON QUARTERLY (Conservative.)
2. EDINBURG REVIEW (Whig.)
3. NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church.)
4. WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal.)
5. BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURG MAGAZINE (Tory.)

These contain all important events—Religious, Political, Military—now agitating the nations of the Old World, and upon which the publications, on account of their ability, are looked for with interest and value before possessed. They occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news letters, and the ponderous volumes of history. Some of the ablest writers of the day are engaged in their pages. Every movement is closely watched, whether of friend or foe, and all sides of each question are fairly stated. The letters from the Crimea and Black Sea, and the articles in Blackwood and the Quarterly, give a more intelligible and right idea of the movements of the belligerents than can be found in any other periodicals.

The Reviews represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical, and in a manner the nature of their character as most profound and able writers on Science, Literature, Policy and Religion they stand as they ever have stood in the world of letters, being considered by the scholar and the professional man, intelligent readers of every class they furnish a cheap and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day throughout the world, than can be just obtained from any other source.

By arrangement with the publishers we shall receive early copies of all articles from the British Publications, and publish these Reprints, especially the articles giving the state of European affairs, intelligence of which will be published in the Boston Daily Whig and Courier as soon after the receipt of the original editions.

Hearing of Judge Davis.

We give up a large space in our paper to day for the purpose of laying before our readers the leading papers read before the Convention of the Legislature, on the hearing of Judge Davis on the charges preferred against him by the Senate. We have no space for comments of our own, in the present issue. The defense has been conducted with signal ability, and the arguments of H. W. Paine, Esq., of Massachusetts, Hon. F. O. J. Smith of Maine, and Hon. Rufus Choate have all been accurately reported and will shortly be published. We copy from the Kennebec Journal.

SATURDAY, April 5

SENATE.—On motion of Mr. Lowell, the vote referring the bill "to establish a Court of Common Pleas" to next Legislature, was reconsidered, and Monday next assigned for its further consideration.

The hour having arrived for the joint convention for hearing of Judge Davis, the Senate repaired to the Hall of the House.

HOUSE.—Passed to be enacted—Bill to regulate proceedings in mere issues.

The new Liquor Bill came up on its final passage and Mr. Stimmon of Saco, moved it be indefinitely postponed, and took the floor and spoke against the bill. He spoke until the hour for the convention, when, on his motion, the bill was laid on the table.

CONVENTION

The Senate came in, and the President took the chair, immediately after which Judge Davis came in, accompanied by his counsel Henry W. Paine, Esq., together with Hon. Edward Kent, and several other gentlemen; Hon. Rufus Choate being detained by indisposition.

[The galleries of the House had been crowded an hour earlier by ladies and gentlemen, and there were many thronging the lobbies waiting for an opportunity to enter. The members of the House accommodated many ladies and gentlemen with seats at their desks.]

The President of the Senate read the order and regulations under which the Convention assembled.

The secretary of the Senate then read the causes of removal as entered on the journal of the Senate.

Judge Davis rose, and expressed the desire to be heard by his counsel who were present and ready to proceed.

Hon. Paine, Esq., commenced by stating the indisposition of Mr. Choate as the reason of his not being present, and of the employment of other counsel.

Mr. Paine after some preliminary remarks, read the following protest:

Protest.

In a Joint Convention of the members of the two branches of the Legislature of Maine April 5th 1856, for the purpose of admitting Woodbury Davis, one of the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, to a hearing in his defense upon certain charges against him, entered upon the journal of the Senate, March 19, 1856 —

And now the said Woodbury Davis appears and respectfully represents, that this Convention is not duly constituted under any provision of the Constitution of this State, and that a hearing before this body is not such a hearing as he is entitled to by the said Constitution—and further, that the adoption of an order for his removal from office by the Governor and Council for the causes aforesaid, is contrary to the provisions of said Constitution—and further, that said causes of removal have been stated and entered upon the journal of the Senate, and the day for a hearing assigned, and the notice thereof given to him by order of the Senate of the Senate without any concurrent action thereon on the part of the House of Representatives,—and further that he has received no notice for any hearing before this Convention nor have both branches of the Legislature agreed upon said statement of the causes of removal aforesaid, upon which he is to be heard. Where one is asking himself of the opportunity to be heard which is now offered to him, he waives no objection to the proceedings aforesaid but protests that they are not such as the Constitution of this State requires, and prays that this protest may be entered upon the journal of the Senate.

WOODBURY DAVIS

Mr. Paine then read the following answer of Judge Davis to the charges or causes of removal entered on the journal of the Senate.

Answer.

In a joint convention of the members of the two branches of the Legislature of Maine, April 5th 1856, for the purpose of admitting Woodbury Davis, one of the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, to a hearing in his defense upon certain charges against him, entered upon the Journal of the Senate, March 19th 1856.

And now the said Woodbury Davis, adhering to his protest already presented, and relying upon the same, respectfully represents that before he is heard in his defense, it is incumbent upon the legislature to introduce legal evidence to sustain the said charges, of which evidence he has said Woodbury Davis is entitled to have notice. He therefore requests that the evidence in support of said charges may now be produced in his presence, and that he may be permitted to introduce and examine witnesses on data in his defense, and to show that there are no valid causes within the meaning of the Constitution of this State why the legislature should adopt an address for his removal from office; and he prays that this request may be entered upon the journal of the Senate.

WOODBURY DAVIS

The President of the Senate said the motion was not allowable under the rule, and therefore could not be entertained.

Concluded To-morrow.

Hatches, and one hundred others, asking for a sidewalk on Kenduskeag Avenue, in continuation from the termination of the wooden side walk, just this side of the path from Kenduskeag Avenue down to where Mr. Hannewell with daughters used to reside, to a spot near Lover's Leap. The memorialists represent that from various causes the population of Kenduskeag Avenue is rapidly increasing, and that the circumstances together with the convenience such a walk might afford to the thousands who visit the remarkably romantic precipice of Lover's Leap, ought to secure its early construction. The memorialists among the items of information given in their petition, set forth the resources of said precipice for flag stones, should it be quarried, &c.

Of J. C. Weston and others for Buck street, to be laid out and extended.

Of Eben French and others, for a road to connect Valley Avenue with Kenduskeag Avenue.

The law in the Kennebec Journal of yesterday, respecting the lowest bidder, is not to the point, as it relates to the Kennebec River at the time.

The Republican Convention, which was to have been held in Lewiston on the 16th inst., has been postponed to the 23d inst., by a letter from the Chairman of the Committee, in consequence of the illness of Mr. Lane, the Editor of the Lewiston Journal, who was to have been the principal speaker on the occasion.

The Conclusion of the "Hearing" in Judge Davis's Case

AUGUSTA, Tuesday, 2 P. M.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. Paine concluded his argument—and, as most able argument it was—convincing every unprejudiced mind that there was not a shadow of ground for impeaching either the motives or the conduct of Judge Davis, in making the decision for which he is to be driven from the bench. A legal gentleman of the highest standing and station, a resident of Augusta, and one of the most influential men in the democratic party, declared openly, after hearing the written statements of evidence offered by Judge Davis's counsel, and after hearing only the opening argument, that the case was a perfectly clear one in his favor, and that it was astonishing that any set of men should be so infatuated as to persist in his removal. The statement so generously made by Gen. Anderson of Portland, to the effect that Judge Davis was notified in person by Mr. Emery's counsel two days before the decision was made, that a decision upon his claim would be required of the Court—and furthermore that Judge Davis on that occasion shew great reluctance to decide the case, and earnestly requested that the matter might rather be submitted by agreement to the full bench, but that he was obliged to decide the matter for the time being and could not avoid it—and further that it was not then expected that counsel would argue the case—we say this statement made in writing by Gen. Anderson, placed Judge Davis conduct in the light of a modest, unassuming, and in exceptionable discharge of unavoidable and painful duty, instead of the rash, prejudiced and partisan character which has been carefully thrown around it by his enemies.

There is therefore no cause whatever for impeaching his motives in that transaction—either proved or attempted to be proved. On the other hand the contrary is most clearly shown.

The only other possible grounds for his removal, are—first that he was not obliged to make any decision and had no right to do so—and secondly that the decision was so clearly wrong that its making of it would imply incompetency of the Judge for his position.—The first of these grounds was shown not to exist, from the statement of Gen. Anderson above cited that there was a necessity for making a decision, which could not be avoided—and consequently a right to make it. The second assumption was also by Mr. Paine shown to be groundless from the fact that the best legal minds of the State have been and are now pretty equally divided in opinion as to the soundness of Judge Davis's decision—many of them, including at least one of the late Judges, believing that he was clearly right in that decision.

Mr. Paine, in the closing part of his address declared that he had changed his own mind somewhat, after an unbiased examination of the question, and was now fully convinced of the correctness of the decision and also of the entire propriety of Judge Davis's motives and conduct in making it, although he had at first been unfavorably impressed by the report of his pulling out of his pocket an opinion ready written for the occasion. Hussey, Gen. Anderson's statement put that matter all right, and relieved Judge Davis's case of its only awkward aspect.

Mr. Paine's argument, and the facts presented, hitherto unknown to the bar, had shed upon the case, showing Judge Davis's sincerity, evidently made an impression upon many though not upon some the majority—but partisan spirit, and the freedom of caucus discipline are too strong to permit any relaxation of purpose. We found, in fact, from conversation with intelligent and candid men at Augusta of all parties, that it is the general feeling that the Straight Whig leaders, and some of the more reckless and bitter of the Hard cat democrats, are driving themselves and the whole coalition to political destruction at railroad speed.

On Saturday afternoon, Mr. F. O. J. Smith spoke for two hours or more—in the course of which he was very severe upon Mr. Senator Barnes. Aside from this, his argument in defence of Judge Davis presented many strong points, in a very forcible manner—and the whole proceeding which is contemplated by the party leaders was presented to the minds of members in a light which we think must at least lead to some very serious and uncomfortable reflections as to the probable consequences to themselves and their party of the action they have determined to take.

In speaking of the character of the tribunal before which Judge Davis is arraigned, Mr. Smith said, "I see in the faces of those who surround me the accusers who have brought the charges against the respondent—I see in the same men, witnesses against him, the judges who are to try him, and the jurors whose verdicts either to save or to damn him. What a monstrous perversion of all the rules of justice is here presented!"

Mr. Paine had cited the resolutions of censure against Gen. Jackson, passed by the Senate of the United States, and the expunging resolutions afterwards adopted—showing that there was some parallel between the two cases, in as much as the United States Senate had proceeded against Gen. Jackson for alleged offences which should only have been the subject of an impeachment and in such instituted by the House of Representatives, and fairly tried by the Senate.

Mr. Smith, after alluding to the same historical facts said with great emphasis, in relation to the wrong contemplated against Judge Davis: "The heart of the people will never cease beating with indignation until the record of this monstrous outrage against the independence of the Judiciary is surrounded with black lines, never to be obliterated except by the final fires of nature! Is there a man among you (asked Mr. S.) who covets a position within those damning lines? He had better be enshrouded in his coffin and plunged into the great ocean of oblivion!"

One of the most effective points made by Mr. Smith, was the showing by conclusive facts that not only is the proposed removal unjustifiable, even upon the ground that Judge Davis has made an erroneous decision, but that that decision itself has not even the chance of being pronounced correct, when, as it inevitably must be, it is brought before the full court—and that the very men who are thus decision-makers are themselves, afflicted with, to say the least, whether it may be sustained. These doubts were positively demonstrated to exist among these men, by showing that the decision among them, procure their presence by those same old shrieks which have politicians pretend to despise. Smith presented no affidavits, but that some early law among them ex-judge Hornblower among Judge Davis's decisions in precepts to be served by the Sheriff Baker; the other affidavit decided Shepley & Dana of Portland, decided as recently as February 26th by Mr. Farwell, that a bid Sheriff. These things show, that no, Judge Davis's decisions have ever doubted whether Judge Davis, after all, the correct decision. [illegible] that Mr. Farwell, Lord Cushing, Judge of the Supreme Court, and John Appleton, Reporter of the Decisions, have both [illegible] the decision to be sound. Joseph H. Williams, Esq., who has a high reputation for legal acumen, openly expresses the same opinion, and Mr. Paine, Mr. Smith, and many others do not hesitate to endorse it as law here.

Mr. Choate's argument delivered on Monday afternoon, and of which, as it will be published in full from a stenographic report, we will venture to give no account, was one of his most willing and happiest efforts—and although suffering from illness at the time, and with failing strength when obliged him to limit his time to about half what he originally intended, it was an effort altogether worthy of his great name. It was an argument which, notwithstanding Mr. Fuller of Augusta felt compelled to show its fallacies, will yet, in our humble opinion, carry some considerable share of conviction in the minds of the people, however far above its influence the minds of partisan legislators may prove to have been carried by the superior eloquence or force of the caucus room.

Out of the Legislature, almost every man who heard Mr. Choate and whose expressed opinions we heard at Augusta—particularly legal men of all parties—declared their conviction that there could be no shadow of a case against Judge Davis, and that the facts developed at the hearing had raised him immensely in their esteem, as an honest, unassuming and capable Judge and as a sincere man.

Mr. Choate himself, in a direct and most pointed manner rendered a gratifying tribute to the character, and abilities of Judge Davis—a compliment peculiarly valuable at the present time. Mr. Choate said "he found in him the judicial quality of mind eminently developed—that he was clear in thought and explicit in language in every respect—that his services were invariably performed—and that according to all observation and testimony he was a rising man on the bench and one well worthy to sustain and carry forward the judicial reputation of the State."

In the decision for which Judge Davis is to be removed, Mr. Choate said he followed strictly all the precedents, and that every word in the famous Massachusetts case which has been so exultingly cited against him is in entire accordance with the principles of his decision. That decision, he declared, instead of being against Judge Davis, in act sustaining him. In that case the only reason for sustaining the removing and appointing power of the Governor, until the elections by the people, was the fact that in the Massachusetts respites for pardon, provision was made to strike out that power from the Constitution. In the case of our amendments it was still different.

We refer the reader, however, to the argument itself, which will soon be published.

We repeat, that it convinced every man who heard it, except the maddest partizan, that the act contemplated will be the most monstrous in its injustice, and the most dangerous in its tendencies, of any which was ever perpetrated in this city. In the emphatic words of Mr. Choate himself—"He challenged the production from the darkest and maddest moment of any history, of a precedent like this."

Mr. Choate, before he left town on Tuesday morning, remarked in conversation, that he did not think there was a Judge upon the Massachusetts Bench who would have acted more properly and discreetly upon the matters presented to him than Judge Davis has acted.

On Tuesday morning, Senator Barnes called up the Address, and spoke all the forenoon in a labored argument in which story of the constitutional power of address to show the rightfulness and necessity of the power—a proposition on which nobody disputes. His main effort however, was to assure and lean up the sinking courage of the coalition—to drive the members up to the final consummation of the outrage against their resent better judgment, and against every ominous voice of warning to them as public men, and as party men. He called upon them distinctly to "Keep their courage up." Hoped to flush Frank Smith in return for the lashing he had himself received, and also declared himself displeased with the manner in which certain citations had been made by Mr. Paine.

Thus much up to Tuesday noon. It was then expected that Hon. Lot M. Morrill would follow Mr. Barnes in opposition to the Address. More hereafter.

W.

PORTLAND ELECTION.—The Municipal Election took place in Portland yesterday, and resulted in the election of James T. McCobb Mayor and William Paine Judge of the Police Court.—The citizens of Portland opposed to the present National and State administrations, had for their candidates Hon. William Willis, for Mayor, and Wm. Boyd Judge of the Police Court. The real issue between the parties was dodged by those who nominated McCobb and Paine, and an issue made up, combining the administration strength and disapprobation of the proceedings of the party government for the last year, although none of the officers were candidates. The plan has succeeded on the mixed issue and by the utmost exertions of the allies, who worked as though death stared them in the face.

The travelling is exceedingly heavy, and some roads are impassable for teams.

[To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.]

I noticed in the Bangor Journal of the 3d inst., a communication from Machias, signed ELI, relating to the escape of prisoners from the Jail in that town, implying fault and neglect on the part of the former Sheriff, B. W. Farrar, who is represented as having been appointed by Gov. Morrill. This latter statement is not correct. Mr. Farrar, who is, everywhere, except in this article, spoken well of, and who has been a very popular officer, received his Commission from Gov. Crosby. This, as well as the fact, that the Machias Jail had, for years, been considered totally unfit and insufficient to hold any persons disposed to break out of it, must have been known to the writer of this communication, if he lives in Machias. No fault can justly be attributed to the jailer for the escape in question.

Mr. Farrar will probably be the people's candidate for the office of Sheriff, at the September election, and if so, will be elected. It might have been otherwise if Gov. Wells had not removed him in the way he has, or attempted to do it. Mr. Nichols, the present acting Sheriff, has stood high in the public estimation, as an officer and a gentleman, and when he was a candidate for re-election on the expiration of his commission, the whole Bar of Washington County, without distinction of party, united in recommending him to Gov. Crosby, and the reason why he was not re-nominated need not now be presumed. In the selection of his Deputies he has not manifested a correspondingly favorable disposition to political opponents, but made up a rule to consult the wishes of the "Straight Whigs and Democrats" only. The Republicans, however, will not abandon him for this, but will remember it at the Fall election.

The facts in relation to Mr. Farrar's "obstinacy in resisting the legal officers," as charged in the Journal, are simply these:—When Mr. Nichols received his Commission from Gov. Wells, notice was personally given to him by Mr. Farrar, and the utmost courtesy was observed between them on this occasion. The excitement that followed these removals and appointments is well known. Mr. Farrar did not consider them legal, but had determined to make no forcible resistance. He could not, if disposed, leave the Jail House without sufficient time to procure other accommodations for his family. A few weeks since, Mr. Nichols came to Machias to demand possession of the house. He called on Mr. Farrar, and was politely received, for Mr. F. is a gentleman in manners.—After some conversation, Mr. Nichols threatened and declared, "that if his life was spared he would have possession of the house before the sun went down." On Mr. Farrar's objecting to this summary mode of procedure, he, Mr. N., requested Mr. Morey, Jr., to go and get assistance to clear the house. He went and Mr. Farrar then locked the doors on the inside. Mr. N. asked if he meant to make him a prisoner. Mr. F. answered, No—and that he would let him out when he wished to go, but would not admit others for the purpose threatened. In the meantime, it got noised abroad that Mr. N. was going to take forcible possession of the house, and about fifteen resolute and sturdy ship carpenters marched in single file from their yards, and silently ranged themselves near the house, and stationed themselves on occasion required. Soon after, Mr. Morey returned, with two Irishmen, and stated that he could get no more help, and Mr. N., like a man, said that he would not receive such assistance and no other could be obtained. After this failure to eject Mr. F., the parties sat down to talk the matter over, in a more conciliating way. Mr. N. declared that the time had come when he must either have possession, or resign. Without admitting his right, Mr. F. agreed to leave the house at a certain time, and he has left it accordingly. It is believed that Mr. N. would not have taken the course he did, if he had not been compelled to do it, and many persons still feel sorry, for the personal respect they bore him, to be under the necessity, for the sake of law, justice and honor, to vote against him next fall. The account here given is taken from the lips of Mr. Farrar, and is not exaggerated.

BEAR BOTH SIDES.

Bibles and Rifles.

The New Haven Journal and Courier publishes a report of a sermon preached in that City last Sabbath evening by the Rev. Mr. Dutton, from two texts—one in Luke xi. 14, and the other in Matthew x. 3.

"Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will to men."

"I think not that I come to send peace on earth. I come not to send peace but a sword."

We make the following extracts from the reverend gentleman's address:

A new territory, vast and productive, has recently been opened to emigration. To take possession of it for Christ and his religion is a Christian duty. In order to possess it by his religion in pure and effective forms, it must be kept free from the oppressive and corrupting institution of Slavery. It has been irrevocably consecrated to freedom by a legal compact of more than thirty years standing. That compact was set aside by our national legislature, and the territory was thrown open to Slavery as well as Freedom. It would therefore be possessed by freedom or slavery as the majority of its actual settlers should decide. There was a deliberation and plan on the part of the friends of slavery, especially in the adjoining Slave State to secure it for slavery, by sending in slaveholding or slavery informing emigrants. In order, therefore, to possess it for freedom, and thus for Christ, it was necessary to quicken the emigration thither of friends of freedom. This it became the duty at home to go and of others who remained at home to help them. I was found that the slavery party in the nearer parts of the adjoining slave State were resorting to armed violence and threatening the expulsion or extermination of the friends of freedom, who had made in the territory their settlement. Self defence thus became necessary for them, and efficient we pray for self defence. And it has been demonstrated that these weapons, and those chiefly, have prevented civil war and the introduction of slavery by illegal and bloody violence.

Of late in this State and this community, we have been endeavoring to do our duty by sending some of our choicest men, models of freedom and of Christ, to that Territory. And as one of the means which they eminently and demonstratively needed, we have given them arms by which they may defend themselves from illegal and ruffianly violence—arms, in the very possession of which will probably prevent violence and ensure peace.

Now this has in some quarters been loudly condemned as unchristian. Unchristian! Is self defence against lawless violence—self defence by men promoting in a lawful way the interests of freedom and christianity unchristian? Unchristian to furnish arms to such men, for such a purpose? Then christ himself was unchristian. For, on a certain occasion, no more exigent surely, than this, he said to his disciples, "He that hath no sword let him sell his garment and buy one." Unchristian to use arms in defence of life and liberty, against wicked violence? Then our revered forefathers, who fought on this very soil for the freedom we now enjoy, were unchristian.

But it is complained that Christian ministers engaged in this work of procuring and bestowing arms. They did. One plead for them, and I myself gave to a friend, a descendant of this church, (who, I have no doubt, will use them with discretion) a Bible and a rifle—the sword of the Lord and of Gideon! I did right. It was an act which my conscience, upon deliberate judgement, and mature reflection approves. I can defend it before the assembled universe. If it is such an act as Christ enjoined—as we have seen it is—then it was right for the ministers to do it. It was a sacred Christian duty, sacred enough for any Christian in whatever station or office. If it is right for a Christian man, or a christian deacon, to defend himself against unjust violence, it is right for a Christian minister to give him the instrument of self-defence. Unchristian for a minister of the gospel to furnish or to use arms for the purpose of defending life and liberty! Then the reverend clergymen who in such numbers, and of such eminent piety, preached, prayed, and actually entered the ranks and fought, yes, some of them organized their congregations into companies, and as their captains, led them to the conflict for liberty in our revolution, were unchristian. And where is the man who will hold up his head and say that?

It is complained again, that these arms were contributed in a church. So they were.—This was not indeed planned. It was entirely impromptu and unexpected, resulting from the voluntary movement of one of our aged Christian men, who bears a name above all reproach, and renowned throughout our land and the world.* But though it was unexpected, it makes no apology for it. It was right. The act was a duty, a sacred duty—giving to Christian men, whom we sent out, the means of defending themselves, while promoting the holy cause of freedom and religion—a duty sacred enough for this sacred place. In a church! Why, it was in a church that Timothy Dwight, and many other clergymen of our Revolution, addressed men, with their muskets in their hands, pointing them to the battle field for the battles of freedom. It was in this very church (not this edifice, but the edifice occupied by the church which now worships in this) that his minister my predecessor, Jonathan Edwards preached, and prayed in behalf of the armed conflict of our Revolution. It was in this very church that General Webster, before marching to that battle field in Danbury, on which he laid down his life, it was into this very church that he a member of this church marched his regiment with their arms already for battle, and within less than fifty miles of the battle field, and himself here offered prayer for God's blessing on their enterprise.

This church! This church, thank God, is used to such occasions of conflict, and armed conflict when necessary, in behalf of freedom and of God. So may it ever be so long as conflict is needful in that sacred cause.

A church! It was a church in which the eloquent Robert Hall, sainted name, preached one of his most sacred and sublime discourses, to a company of volunteers, armed for warfare in defence of their country's liberty. Ending an apostrophe to the sainted defenders of liberty on high with these words, "Thousands, inflamed with your spirits, and impatient to tread in your steps are ready to swear by Him that sits on the throne and liveth forever and ever that they will protect Freedom in her last asylum and never desert that cause which you sustained by your labors, and cemented with your blood. He closed the discourse with this prayer:

"And thou, sole Ruler among the children of men, to whom the shields of the earth belong, gird on thy sword, thou most mighty, go forth with our hosts in the day of battle. Impart, in addition to their hereditary valor that confidence of success which springs from Thy presence. Pour into their hearts the spirit of departed heroes, inspire them within their lowly And while led by Thy hand and fanning under Thy banners, open thou their eyes to behold, in every valley and in every plain, what the prophet beheld by the same illumination—chariots of fire and horses of fire. Then shall the strong man be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them."

Unchristian! Unbecoming in a Christian minister! Done in a church! Let none regard this groundless objection—the offspring either of a weak religious sentimentalism, or of unscrupulous political partisanship.

*Prof. SILLIMAN.

CINCINNATI, June 3, 1855.

MR. DRAN SIRS:—I desire to let the union at [illegible] Day Salve to state a few instances of good results from the use of the medicine manufactured by them called Pain Killer. Has tried every thing which I ever read a cure was that of a spleen of several standing. The person affected with this disease was a young man. Together with the spleen he used to get a fever. Before trying the Pain Killer he never had it but once. Another remedy but failed. I resorted to the Pain Killer and I am happy to say that both the spleen and the fever were removed in a very short time. A servant boy of mine had his right hand severely scalded by the upsetting of boiling lard. I was in a few days persuaded by the application to the parts of cream and Pain Killer as directed in such cases. Then my child, a girl three years old was cured from a severe cough. Lastly, I shall refer to myself—I took the medicine in my family in instances which it will be unnecessary here to state—but it was not from any confidence I had in it at the time. Contrary I took it as a great deal of pains. However I was that several times relieved me of a fever and cured me of a fever of long [illegible] and an ulcer in the mouth. I add also to the above [illegible] mention a case of chills fever for this I find one which was in eight days cured by a friend. The [illegible] my friend's brother in law was attacked with the fever and used two or three bottles of Pain Killer and [illegible] cured. The [illegible] given to the Pain Killer was said [illegible] as this is true, when I was cold and speechless the Pain Killer was administered which threw a warmth into the sky [illegible] and restored [illegible] to life. BALTIMORE, Jan 8, 1856

Messrs C & J Marshall—Gentlemen At the request of your Agent in Baltimore, in regard to our opinion and experience of your copper coated spikes, we, without hesitation, say we believe them the best substitute for copper yet introduced, and better fastening for ships, inasmuch as you have the strength of iron with the preservative qualities of copper
We have used some of your Spikes in old vessels as a substitute for copper, and have had occasion to draw them out a year afterwards, and found them with the coating as firm as when they were driven, and with no appearance of oxidation.
Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) JOHN D FARDY & Bro

GREAT
American and Foreign Office,
—FOR—
Securing Patents for Inventions.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH THE U S PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON

R. H. EDDY,
No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby St., BOSTON

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS—The subscriber (late Agent of the U S Patent Office under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for patents superior to those offered inventors by solicitors, has made arrangements, whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid last by others) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full records of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able beyond question to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents

Caveats Specifications Assignments and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procurement of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions and arrangement of patents All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved to inventors

Copies of the claims of any patent furnished for one dollar Assignments recorded at Washington Patents secured in Great Britain France and other foreign countries, through agents of the highest respectability

R. H. EDDY Solicitor of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R H EDDY Esq of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few if any persons who came in competition with him in the business before the Patent Office and there were none who conducted it with more skill fidelity and success than Mr Eddy is one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States and having confidence in his integrity and abilities I have no hesitation in recommending inventors that they cannot employ a person in my opinion more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

[From the proceedings of commissioner]

"AUGUST, 17, 1855—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents R H Eddy, Esq of Boston has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office as a Solicitor, in which capacity I have acquainted with the ability and the success of this gentleman. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON

Universal Cough Mixture

IS a safe and effectual Remedy for Coughs of every description whether of children or adults, of recent or long standing

PREPARED ONLY BY
REV WALTER CLARKE,
Sole Proprietor, Cornishville, Maine.

Within the last twelve months thousands of bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture have been sold in the State of Maine alone and everywhere its extraordinary power in relieving and curing diseases of the Chest and Lungs is gratefully acknowledged, and especially in cases of obstinate and long standing Coughs it speedily allays the unpleasant sensation in the throat which excites coughing, it promotes free and easy expectoration, and by removing the exciting cause of the cough, it frequently enables the sufferers to enjoy natural and refreshing sleep who for weeks had been deprived of that blessing

Sold in trial bottles 25 cents each large bottles each containing the quantity of four small ones, 75 cents each

Extract of a letter from Daniel Adams, Esq., of Boscobel, Maine

FEBRUARY 12th, 1855.

To Rev Walter Clark Dear Sir—The bottle of Cough Mixture which I bought of you at Hallowell has had the desired effect in my case I had been afflicted with a cough for two years—that bottle entirely relieved it.

From Rev Jesse Hoyt Lewiston Falls

BRO CLARKE—Sir—I find the Universal Cough Mixture which you left with me to be all that it is recommended to be. I have several times prescribed it in my family and it has been a perfect panacea in the case of a severe cold and hoarseness. As far as I have tried it it has proved a sure remedy. Another time when I was laid aside from my work by a severe cough I purchased a bottle of you and after taking it a few days I was able to resume my work. I have since had a cough which I thought would run into the consumption but I found the Universal Cough Mixture to be the best medicine I ever met with. I cannot but recommend it highly.

JESSE HAYES.

From Mr Fletcher Chick agent for North Dixmont Maine

Dear Sir—A number of your most extraordinary cures have been effected by your Universal Cough Mixture in this place. Several with whom I have the pleasure of being acquainted have declared six months with out receiving any benefit have been speedily cured by the Universal Cough Mixture

From Mrs Hubbard, Thorndike, Me

FRANKLIN, Feb 1854

To Rev Walter Clark Dear Sir—I feel confident that I have used one bottle of your Universal Cough Mixture for a distressing cough I had for more than two years. I had tried many other medicines and had been under the care of several physicians but without obtaining the least relief. Hearing your Universal Cough Mixture was highly recommended to me I procured a bottle, which I began to take according to direction and in the labor of which in a few days I was entirely relieved

PREMIUMS
TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS

L SCOTT & CO New York continue to furnish the following reading unequaled by any Periodicals viz

THE LONDON QUARTERLY (Conservative)
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig)
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church)
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal)
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE

THE great and important advantage which we offer to our subscribers in furnishing them with the three leading periodicals of Great Britain, at the price of one, is now fully appreciated by the reading public. The circulation of these periodicals has increased to an extent never before attained in this country, and we have received numerous testimonials from the press and individuals, of the great benefit they have been to the cause of sound literature, religion and morality. In the midst of a flood of worthless publications, they have been a beacon to the public, guiding them to the fountains of pure and undefiled English literature, and exerting a powerful influence against the tide of sensuality and infidelity which threatens to overwhelm the land. In a political point of view, they are invaluable, as they contain the ripest and most profound discussions on the leading topics of the day, from the pens of the ablest writers of Great Britain, irrespective of party.

FARM CLUBS

The great success of our Clubs during the past year, has induced us to continue the system for the present year. We have received numerous letters from Clergymen, Professors, Lawyers, Merchants, Farmers, Mechanics, and others, in all parts of the country, testifying to the great value of our publications, and the great benefit they have been to their families and neighborhoods. We have also received many letters from Postmasters, Postmaster Generals, Members of Congress, Governors, Judges, Senators, and other public men, in which we have been highly complimented for our enterprise in furnishing the people with such a cheap and valuable literature.
